FISCAL REVIEW COMMITTEE

FISCAL NOTE

HB 3161 - SB 3583

February 3, 2010

SUMMARY OF BILL: Authorizes school resource officers (SRO) who are not full-time law enforcement officers to take a special education student into custody upon witnessing an offense.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

MINIMAL

Assumptions:

- Tenn. Code Ann. § 49-6-4202 defines SROs as law enforcement officers.
- All SROs are full-time law enforcement officers. Current methods of determining whether to take special education students into custody will be retained. The proposed change will have no fiscal impact on state or local government.
